SENS, student company of the ENS Paris-Saclay

Created in 2017, SENS Paris-Saclay Conseil is a non-profit student organization, established and executed entirely by students from the Ecole normale supérieure Paris-Saclay.

SENS Paris-Saclay Conseil allows students to work with companies using their skills and knowledge in a business context, enhancing their employability.

Over 1200 students from 12 different education departments are available to solve your challenges today.

Our values are engagement, excellence, reliability and empowerment.

CUSTOMER APPOINTMENT

We will establish a first contact and study the challenges raised by your problem.

CREATION OF YOUR TAYLOR-MADE STUDY

We will send you an intervention proposal as soon as possible, presenting the methodology chosen to meet your needs.

RECRUITMENT AND PERSONNAL INTERVIEW

We will select, among the student volunteers, those whose motivation, values and qualifications best meet your expectations.

OVERSIGHT BY A PROJECT MANAGER

The project manager will be an intermediary between you and the student. He ensures through weekly appointment that the workflow is consistent with your expectations.

RENDERING THE RESULT OF YOUR STUDY

Once the study is completed, we will send you a clear and visual summary of our findings and recommendations. An oral presentation will be available upon request.

Customer Experience

We provide consultancy services to a wide range of companies from start-ups to large corporations.

SENS Paris-Saclay Conseil benefits from the students' excellent training in their field of expertise.

SENS Paris-Saclay Conseil's project managers are devoted to offer high quality and cost effective services.
